Meeting of the OECD Advisory Group on Due Diligence Guidance for Meaningful Stakeholder Engagement in the Extractives Sector

OECD Conference Centre, Room E

2 rue Andre Pascal, 75016, Paris France

Thursday, June 18 13h-15h

Agenda

The purpose of this meeting will be to discuss final revisions to the Due Diligence Guidance for Meaningful Stakeholder Engagement in the Extractives Sector as well as to contribute to shaping the work plan for the implementation phase of this project.

I. Presentation of results of the public consultation and changes to text (Secretariat –20 minutes)

II. Open discussion of any outstanding issues in the text (50 minutes)
   a. Treatment of FPIC
   b. Additional outstanding issues to be determined from consultation

III. Presentation and discussion of proposed follow up steps upon finalisation of the Guidance (50 minutes)
   a. Online interactive version of the Guidance
   b. Pilot programme
   c. Peer learning through training and organised dialogue
   d. Supporting research

1 Members of the Advisory Group of the Responsible Agricultural Supply Chains project will be invited to join the discussion on FPIC to ensure alignment between the Guidance and the FAO-OECD Guidance for Responsible Agricultural Supply Chains.